The Kirk Gibson Center for Parkinson's Wellness will open in Farmington Hills, Michigan, in mid-2025. This state-of-the-art center will offer a broad range of therapeutic programs free of charge to 5,000 visitors each year. Insurance will not be required. Programs will range from exercise and movement-based therapies to lifestyle classes and counseling services.

The Center will open its doors on schedule thanks to the donors listed in italics who have made a commitment to the capital campaign since Oct. 1, 2024.
